DETAILED ACTION

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 10/31/2007 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 1, 3-5, 9, 11-14, 17-22, 27-31 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Han (6485587) in view of Svenson (4368065).

Han et al discloses an explosive composition produced by slurry process comprising bimodal HMX or RDX. Example 5 discloses bimodal HMX with 51 % of Class 1, 41 % Class 5, 2 % of Hytemp 4454, and 6% of DOA. Not disclosed is the claimed particle sizes of the two different portions.

Svenson teaches bimodal RDX and HMX of size 10 and 70 microns (ex. 1, 3, and 4).

It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to use the particle sizes taught by Svenson since Svenson suggests that these are known sizes to use with bimodal RDX and HMX and since Han discloses bimodal RDX and HMX. It is also obvious to vary the amounts and sizes of the RDX and HMX to achieve a desired result. It is well-settled that optimizing a result effective variable is well within the expected ability of a person of ordinary skill in the subject art. In re Boesch, 617 F.2d 272, 205 USPQ 215 (CCPA 1980), In re Aller, 220 F.2d 454, 105 USPQ 233 (CCPA 1955). If the product in the product-by-process claim is the same as or obvious from a product of the prior art, the claim is unpatentable even though the prior product was made by a different process. In re Thorpe, 777 F.2d 695, 698, 227 USPQ 964, 966 (Fed. Cir. 1985).

4. Claims 2, 7, 8, 10, 15, 16, 22-26, 32-35 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Han (6485587) in view of Svenson (4368065) as applied to claims 1, 3-5, 9, 11-14, 17-22, 27-31 above, and further in view of Godsey (4298411).

Godsey teaches that it is known to use mixtures of HMX and RDX when employing a bimodal oxidizer in a propellant composition (col. 8, lines 15-31).

It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to use mixtures of HMX and RDX as taught by Godsey since Godsey suggests that it is known to use mixtures of the two in a propellant with a bimodal oxidizer and since Han and Svenson both teach HMX and RDX as bimodal oxidizers. It is also obvious to vary the amounts and sizes of the RDX and HMX to achieve a desired result. It is well-settled that optimizing a result effective variable is well within the expected ability of a person of ordinary skill in the subject art. In re Boesch, 617 F.2d 272, 205 USPQ 215 (CCPA 1980), In re Aller, 220 F.2d 454, 105

USPQ 233 (CCPA 1955). If the product in the product-by-process claim is the same as or obvious from a product of the prior art, the claim is unpatentable even though the prior product was made by a different process. In re Thorpe, 777 F.2d 695, 698, 227 USPQ 964, 966 (Fed. Cir. 1985).
